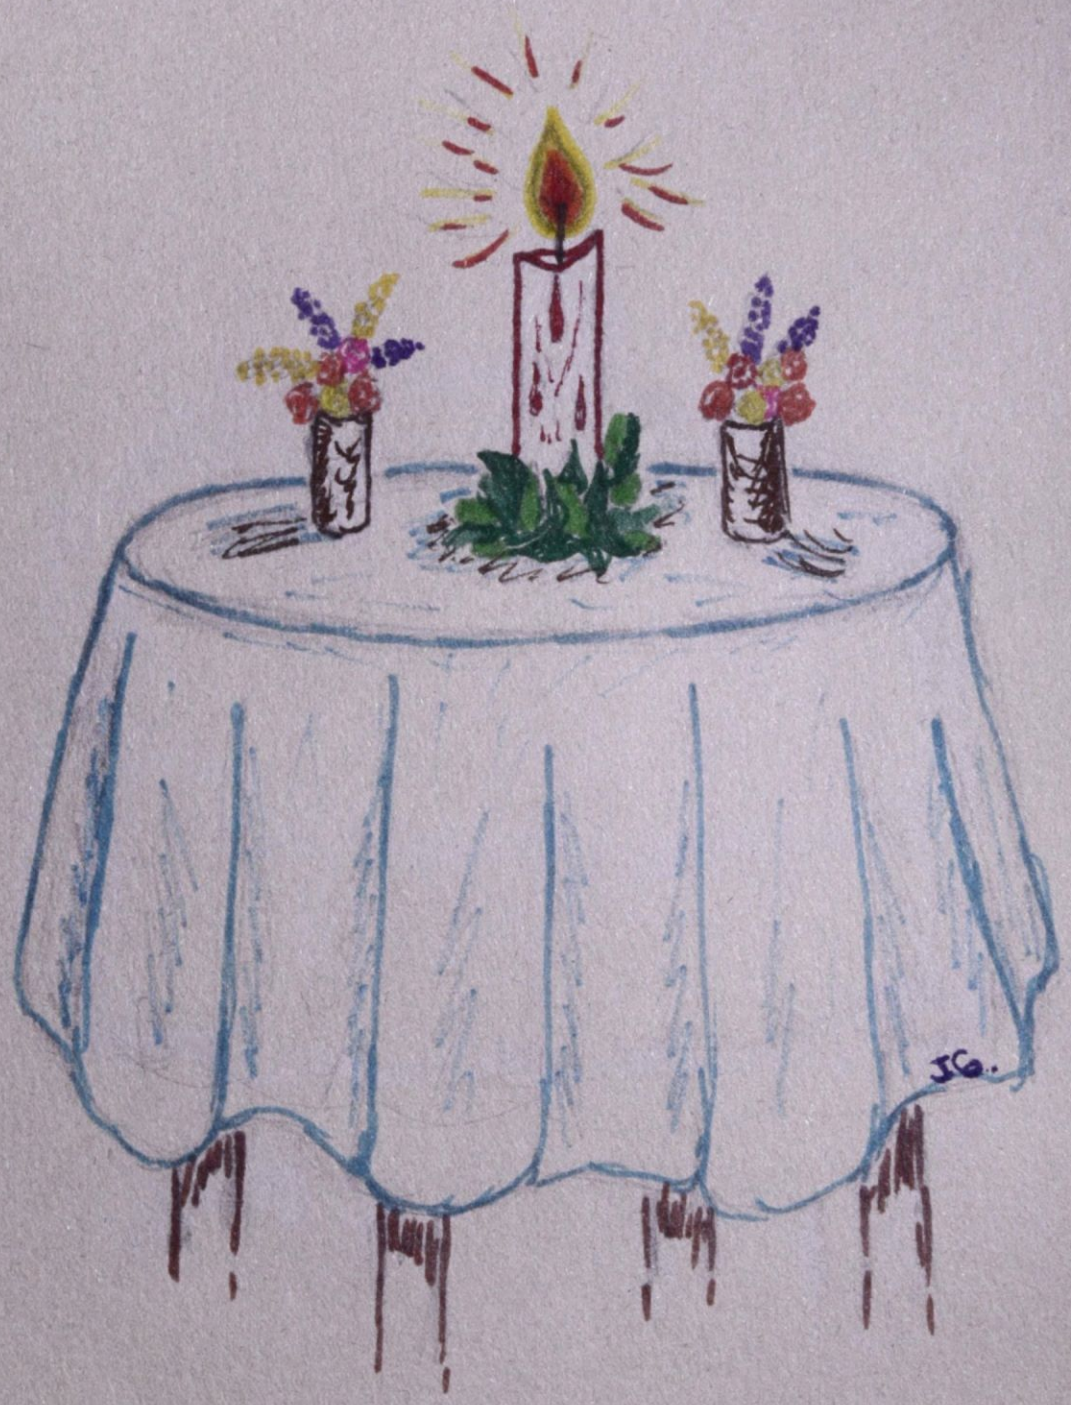
Formal Initation
Oct 3, 1979



On this occasion the house gathered together in the study lounge. Besides this being our Formal Initation the Freshman found out who their secret sister was. The event was an exciting and moving memory for the Freshman. The cermony consisted of the uper classmen taking a candle and lighting a candle in the hand of their secret sister. Along with this they offered her a flower, and some a kiss.

Everyone showed their artistic ability and decorated their doors. Everyone's was so good that we dicided not to have one door as a winner everyone won. We all had an excellent time in decorating our doors.

Oct. 25, 1979, Paloma House opened their doors for the whole Graceland College people to come in an see how the women of Paloma fixed up their living quarters. We had a big success, many people came and saw the rooms. Paloma had terrific food.

Paloma's Halloween Party

Oct. 27, 1979

On Oct. 27, it was Paloma's witches night out. All the little witches got their brooms and claws in tip top condition in search of a victim (Date) for the Paloma's night out. At the party on one side of the room we had refreshments on the other side we had a dance floor so that the witches could boogie down. After the dance we had a real scarey movie. All in all we had a great night on the town. We even had judging for best costume. Judy Janks and her Date Steve Fugate won.

For the week of Nov. 17-21 Paloma had a secret Brother House (Trina). Everyone Picked a character that they wanted to use, like Juliet and Romeo, Popeye and Olivoil, During the week there was a feeling of excitement. Girls hurrying to get their gifts baked or wrapped. On the 21 - Trina and Paloma got together to find out who their secret sister or secret brother was. All in all, it was a great week! We received many gifts, and we gave excellant food and gifts the men in Trina gained 5 pounds each -- that's 300 pounds collectively.

What profit is it, for me to reach out to make others strong unless I am anchored to strength myself?

To know
in my own heart that when I say yes
I mean yes, and when I say no
I mean no,
and will stand by it
whether anyone

Is Christ's Spirit really in me?

Is my first desire to do the will of my father?

Do I show His attitude toward others.... intolerance of evil, yet love of the sinner?

By these tokens, do I belong to Him?
